

JOURNEY THROUGH THE TABERNACLE
THE DOOR

Thus far in our “_____” we have discovered that God was very specific about the _____ of the _____.

He specified that there was to be a _____ around the court, teaching that there is a _____ between sinful _____ and the holiness of _____.

However, in that fence there was a _____, but only _____ gate, showing there is only one way to _____.

After entering through the gate one was to encounter the _____, which taught that a _____ is required for a person to have a relationship with _____ and to be _____ of _____.

What two things were the priests forbidden to do, under penalty of death, without first washing at the laver? [Exodus 30:19-20]

1. _____
2. _____

This clearly teaches that if one is to _____ God, he must not only be saved but also have daily _____ from all sin.

Continuing westward after passing the _____, the next thing encountered was the _____, which by calculating the height and width of the boards used in the outer walls was _____ cubits long by _____ cubits wide. [Ex. 26:15-30] It consisted of _____ rooms, the _____ and the _____.

The Holy of Holies was a _____ cubit cube.

The tabernacle proper is called by several names.

1. _____ Ex. 27:21
2. _____ Lev. 17:4
3. _____ Num.1:50

The tabernacle proper was built like a _____, as its name implies, which was easily as _____ and _____.

The covering of the _____, which made its ceiling or roof, consisted of _____ outer coverings one of _____ and the other of _____.

Then there were two inner coverings, one of _____ and the innermost covering which was _____-colored and _____ with cherubim.

This innermost covering was composed of two _____ sewn together in two sets of _____ and joined by _____ golden taches, or _____, that took hold through _____ blue loops [Ex. 26:1-6 & 36:9-19].

One obtained entrance into this holy tabernacle through the _____.

The door gave access to the tabernacle proper, and like the _____ to the court it was on the _____ side.

The colors, materials, and design of the door were the same as the _____.

However, by reading Exodus 27:16-17 and 26:36-37 explain the differences in the following:

Number of pillars: _____

Metals used in construction of pillars: _____

The door of the tabernacle, being ____ cubits or ____ feet high, was exactly twice as high as the _____.

It was fastened to the five _____ pillars by hooks made of _____.

No one but the _____ could ever see what was on the _____.

Ordinary Israelites could enter the _____ and _____ sacrifices at the _____
_____, but that was as far as they could ever go.

They could only wonder what it must be like to have _____ access to God because for them to set foot beyond the _____ would mean _____.

How did Jesus change all that, according to Hebrews 10:19-22?
