

The Veil and the Ark of the Covenant

The Veil covered the entrance to the tabernacle's innermost room, called the _____.

Behind the veil was one piece of furniture the _____ the _____.

The Holy of Holies, was cube shaped, with each of its dimensions being _____ cubits.

How was the Holy of Holies like the New Jerusalem mentioned in Rev. 21:16?

_____.

The _____ was the pattern of God's dwelling place, and a replica of the one in _____ described in the Book of _____.

The veil was much like the gate and the _____, with one major difference: _____.

_____ [Ex. 26:31].

_____ are angels that protect the holiness of God.

The _____ therefore kept everyone from God's presence.

What happened to the veil in the temple, according to Matthew 27:50-51? _____

_____.

According to Hebrews 4:14-16 and 10:19, what was the purpose of God's tearing the veil? _____.

The importance of the _____ of the _____ can hardly be overemphasized.

The Bible makes reference to it more than _____ times, with such names as _____, _____, and _____.

It was a chest made of _____ wood and covered inside and out with _____ gold.

The top of the ark was a _____ or _____, made of pure gold, called the _____.

Two rings of gold were on either side of the ark to hold the _____ of wood, which were also covered with gold, by which the ark was to be _____. [Ex. 25:12-14]

A command is given in regard to these golden staves that is not mentioned about any of the other pieces of furniture in the _____.

Read Exodus 25:15, and explain: _____

_____.

The reason for the staves _____ being removed is that the penalty for touching the ark was _____ death.

Resting on top of the ark was a slab or _____ of pure gold, the same length and width as the _____.

At the end of the lid were solid gold _____ of _____.

What very special things do we find about the cherubims that arched over the mercy seat in Exodus 25:22 and Numbers 7:89? _____

_____.

The Hebrew word KAPPORETH, translated mercy seat literally means _____.

The propitiatory best conveys the idea intended, that of making _____ of sin.

The word propitiation means _____.

God is a _____ God, and sin is a heinous offense to His _____.

God's holiness and _____ demands that sin be fully punished, but because of His _____ love, God has provided a way to justify the sinner and has made _____ to forgive sin.

The mercy seat was only a picture of what ultimate fulfillment, according to I John 2:1-2?

Explain Exodus 25:20; I Peter 1:12; and Luke 15:10: _____

_____ are _____ for our salvation, and we should be too.

Three articles were to be preserved inside the ark. What are they?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

The tables of the law in the ark were _____ that Israel had sinned and _____ the blood-sprinkled _____, or else they would be condemned.

The golden pot of manna was to be a reminder of what, according to Exodus 16:32-35?

The manna was the _____ that God _____ supplied to the Israelites during all _____ years they were in the _____.

The word manna means: _____.

It was not bread, for what does that same verse say was God's purpose in providing the Manna? _____.

This was picture of a better bread, or manna, that was to come from _____.

How did Jesus explain this great spiritual truth in John 6:48-51? _____

Finally, there was Aaron's rod that _____.

We studied about the miraculous budding of Aaron's rod when we considered the _____.

It was a reminder that God alone decided on the priestly tribe and that He can bring to _____ that which is _____.

From this lesson then we can see that the golden ark with its contents was the _____ point of the entire _____.

In Leviticus 16 a detailed set of _____ is given concerning the _____ and _____ to be followed on the Day of _____.

This was the most important day of the _____ because the high priest would atone for the sins of the nation Israel with the _____ of _____.

This had to done _____ a year and was a picture of _____ better to come.

What spiritual truth did this pictures, according to Hebrews 9:11-12? _____

What does this spiritual truth mean to you personally?

