

II KINGS
25 CHAPTERS

These books cover a period of ____ years and tell us of the _____ and _____ of the kingdom.

In the book of II Kings we will see both _____ and _____ led into captivity.

OUTLINE OF THE BOOK

- I. THE MINISTRY OF ELIJAH AND ELISHA [CHAPS 1-8]
- II. FROM JEHU TO ISRAEL'S FALL [CHAPS 9-17]
- III. JUDAH TO ITS FALL [CHAPS 18-25]

During the sinful time of Israel's history God raised up _____ to proclaim his message.

These men were called _____.

Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and with it stuck the water in the river. What happened? _____.

Elisha asked for a _____ of Elijah's spirit so that he might carry on the old prophet's work effectively.

Then suddenly, as they walked and talked together, what happened? _____.

Elisha's ministry lasted _____ years.

The most famous of Elisha's episodes was his healing of _____ leprosy.

The current king of Israel was _____, the grandson of Ahab.

While King Joram was recuperating from a wound received on the battlefield, what did Elisha instruct one of his prophets to do? _____.

After Jehu was anointed, he set out for _____, where Joram was recuperating.

There he _____ Joram, and ordered the body to be cast out on the very ground which Joram's grandfather Ahab has stolen from Naboth.

His next move was to eliminate _____, Ahab's wife, who has led the worship of Baal in Israel.

How was Jezebel killed? _____.

Jehu reigned for _____ years.

Jeroboam II was _____ great-grandson.

Jeroboam II gained most of Israel's territory that was lost after the death of _____.

After Jeroboam II's death Israel had ____ kings, ____ of whom gained the throne by violence.

_____ was the last king of Israel.

He reigned for ____ years and refused to pay tribute to Assyria.

What happened as a result? _____.

This northern _____ of Israel has been known ever since as the _____.

They _____, and thus became the _____ called _____ in the NT.

Why did God allow this to happen to Israel? _____.

Judah _____ survived for more than a century after the fall of the _____.

Judah had only two good kings, _____ and _____.

King Hezekiah sought to restore Judah both _____ and _____.

_____ the prophet was also active in the religious reform.
 How did God intervene for Hezekiah? _____.
 The last good king Judah was _____.
 How old was he when he began to reign? _____
 Josiah was without the finest of Judah's _____ and _____ out thorough religious reform.
 Josiah found the book of the _____ and had it read _____.
 During this revival, what kind important feast did Josiah command to be reinstated in II Kings 23:21-23? _____
 The Assyrian capitol, _____, fell to Babylonia in 612 B.C.
 Egypt went north to aid what was left of _____.
 King Josiah of Judah resisted their march through Israelite _____ and was killed at the battle of _____.
 Judah became sandwich between two super powers, _____ and _____.
 The very poor of Judah were left to tend to the _____.
 The _____ was burned, and all its _____ taken away to _____.
 There was a vast difference in the results of the fall of the _____ Kingdom and the fall of the _____ Kingdom, as we shall see in the books of _____ and _____.

I AND II CHRONICLES
 29 AND 36 CHAPTERS

In the Hebrew Bible the Books of Chronicles are called “_____”.
 They are a chronicle, “_____”, giving us the main genealogies of Israel and the main events of the Southern Kingdom, Judah, to the time of the Babylonian captivity.
 The books deal with almost exclusively with Judah and _____ because that is the kingdom and city where the _____ was built.
 What happened to the 2 1/2 tribes that decided to stay on the east side of Jordan? _____
 _____.
 Look At the map:
 What famous gulf bordered both the Assyrian and Babylonian empires on the southeast?

 What river flowed through the middle of both empires? _____
 What was the capitol of Assyria? _____
 What was the capitol of Babylonia? _____