

Judges and Ruth Judges 21 chapters

The key verse is found in two places _____ and _____.

The book of Judges has been called the _____ of the Hebrew people, because it shows the repetitive cycle of Israel deserting God for the _____ gods. God would send a _____, but at the death of the deliverer the old pattern of _____ would return.

There are ____ deliverers or _____ named in this book.

Judges covers the period from the death of Joshua to the coming of _____ to the throne, a span of about _____ years.

I. THE APOSTASY [CHAPS. 1-2:5]

II. THE PERIOD OF THE JUDGES [2:6-16:31]

III. THE APPENDICES [17-21]

Much of the _____ remained to be conquered after the death of Joshua. The first act of the Israelites was to seek _____ as to how they should begin the final conquest.

God appointed _____, the kingly tribe, to go and _____ first.

The Israelites did not drive out the enemies as God had commanded. Instead, What did they do? _____

What did the angel of the Lord say in 2:1-5 would be the result of this sin? _____

Then came a new _____ that had not seen the great things that God had done for Israel.

Therefore, the Israelites quickly _____ the _____ of God and _____ Baalim.

During this time there was no _____ city or _____ government, so there was no _____ among the 12 tribes.

In the book of Judges we see the love of God _____ demonstrated.

List some Judges:

Othniel _____

Ehud _____

Shangar _____

Deborah _____

Gideon _____

Samson _____

Despite the _____ past unfaithfulness and His knowledge that it would happen again, God delivered them each time they _____ to Him.

The attention is now focused on two incidents, which illustrate the _____ and _____ of Israel, rather than on Israel's great heroes.

The first of the two incidents is an account of the _____ pressuring the Danites from the south to the northern part of Israel.

There they set up an _____ that was strictly forbidden by the Law of Moses.

The second incident, recorded in chapters 19-21, tells of the _____ of the Levite, which resulted in war with the tribe of _____ and the near extinction of that tribe.

Ruth
Ruth 4 Chapters

The events in the book of Ruth take place during the days of the _____, but what a difference we see.

Instead of _____ and _____ we read of _____ and love.

It is the story of a godly family from what famous city? _____

The family traveled to the land of Moab because of _____ in the land.

There the two sons of _____ and _____ married Moabitess girls, who became worshippers of God.

What happened to cause Naomi and her daughters-in-law to return to Bethlehem?

On the way to Judah, _____ became concerned for the welfare of her daughters-in-law, _____ and _____, and asked them to return to their home in Moab.

Orpah _____ returned, but Ruth _____ to leave Naomi in her lonely old age.

While gleaning in the field, Ruth met _____, won his heart, and they were _____.

Boaz and Ruth had a son named _____, who had a son named _____, who has a son named _____.

This book establishes the _____ of the ancestors of _____.

We can see God at work keeping the promises He made in Gen. 3:15 and 22:15-18.

What were these promises?

1. _____
2. _____