From Your Pastor:

I thought an excerpt from Charles Spurgeon would be a fitting way to get our minds prepared for Easter. This is from sermon XXI entitled, "A Visit To Calvary."

"So we can say of Jesus Christ, that we had rather hear the repetitions of Jesus than any novelty from any preacher whatsoever. O! how our souls are dissatisfied when we listen to a sermon destitute of Christ. There are some preachers who can manage to deliver a sermon and leave out Christ's name altogether. Surely the true believer will stand like Mary Magdalene, over the sermon, and say: "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." Take away Christ from the sermon, and you have taken away its essence. The marrow of theology is Christ, the very bone and sinew of the gospel is preaching Christ. A Christless sermon is the merriment of hell. A Christless sermon is a fearful waste of time; it incurs the blood of souls, and dyes that man's skirts with gore who dares to preach it. But too much of Christ we can not have. Give us Christ always, Christ ever. The monotony of Christ is sweet variety, and even the unity of Christ hath in it all the elements of harmony. Christ, on his cross and on his throne, in the manger and in the tomb--Christ everywhere is sweet to us. We love his name, we adore his person, we delight to hear of his works."
